We learn from our Mexican papers that the national affairs were in apparently inextricable confusion. Numerous but unsuccessfull efforts had been made to form a Cabinet. Senor Robles has accepted the office of Minister of War, but Senor Esteva has positively refused a place in the Cabinet.

A conducta, which had left San Louis for Catorce, was robbod of $50,000. The conducta was escorted by twentytwo soldiers, who were overpowered by more than a hundred robbers. None of the money has been recovered.

The Spanish residents of the city of Mexico have raised $5,000 to be contributed to the support of the families of the Spanish soldiers who fell at Las Pozas and other places in the contests with Lopez.
